Special consideration

Special consideration is a variation to an assessment that takes into account the impact of unexpected or extenuating circumstances on your performance in an assessment. Special consideration provides for unexpected illnesses or hardships on a one-off basis. You must apply for special consideration within two days of the assessment or exam due date. Supporting evidence unavailable at the time of lodgement may be provided five days after lodging your application.

For more information visit >> www.rmit.edu.au/students/specialconsideration

Special circumstances

Sometimes students are forced to withdraw from their studies after the census date due to circumstances beyond their control. If you wish to apply for fee waiver, a refund, approval of withdrawal without academic penalty or to have your FEE-HELP balance re-credited under special circumstances please visit

More information

If you have a query about your enrolment or studies at RMIT:

- call the RMIT Student Administration Support Line on tel. +61 3 9925 8980, during business hours
- or, email oua.enrolment@rmit.edu.au

For general IT support please contact the IT Helpdesk on tel. +61 3 9925 8888 or email helpdesk@rmit.edu.au or visit >> www.rmit.edu.au/its/ithelp

---

Every effort has been made to ensure the information contained in this publication is accurate and current at the date of printing. For the most up-to-date information please refer to the RMIT University website.

February 2011
Open Universities Australia at RMIT website
The Open Universities Australia at RMIT website gives OUA students detailed information about undertaking a single unit or an entire program of study through RMIT University. Find out about units and qualifications, assessment guidelines, administration information and important dates for RMIT OUA students at >> www.rmit.edu.au/oua

myRMIT
myRMIT gives you direct access to your:
- personal details
- RMIT student email account
- important announcements
- news on University events and activities
- online learning resources
- student forums
- classifieds
- frequently asked questions (see the OUA section)
- results
>> www.rmit.edu.au/myrmit

Log in to myRMIT with your username and password.
Username: The letter ‘s’ followed by your student number e.g. s3333333
Initial password: The letter ‘p’ followed by your date of birth (DOB) backwards e.g. p19900408 (DOB 8 April 1990).

Remember to change your password after your first login. Further information is located on the Password assistance web page at >> www.rmit.edu.au/its/password

You will not be able to use some functions in myRMIT, such as enrolment and editing/updating of personal information. Please contact OUA directly regarding changes to your enrolment or personal details.

IT services
RMIT offers a wide range of information and communication technologies to support your learning experience. For detailed information visit >> www.rmit.edu.au/students/it

Important communications from RMIT
During your studies with RMIT University you will receive a number of important communications. You need to log in to myRMIT at least twice a week to check your announcements and student email account. RMIT will use your student email account to send you official communications related to your enrolment, studies, fees and academic progress. It is your primary means of contact for all correspondence between you and the University.
>> www.rmit.edu.au/myrmit

Online study materials
Your online study materials will be available in the ‘Studies’ tab in myRMIT approximately seven days prior to your start date. If you are unable to access this information you should contact your RMIT school.
>> www.rmit.edu.au/schools

RMIT unit codes and titles
The RMIT unit codes and titles that you see in the ‘Studies’ tab in myRMIT may vary from the unit codes you enrolled in through OUA. If you are unsure whether you are enrolled in the correct unit, please contact RMIT.

RMIT University Library
You can access RMIT University Library’s online resources, including books and journals, using your student number and password. To borrow books you need to contact the Library to obtain a library card.
For more information, visit >> www.rmit.edu.au/library/borrowing/oua

Exams
Many courses offered through OUA have an invigilated exam component as part of the assessment. The exam period closely follows the study period (undergraduate) or session (postgraduate) term end date.

Information explaining the online timetable and venue selection process for exams will be sent to the email address you provide to OUA. As an OUA student studying through RMIT, it is your responsibility to ensure you read all the information relating to exams.
For more information visit
>> www.open.edu.au/exams

Disability Liaison Unit
If you are living with a disability, long-term medical condition or temporary illness, the Disability Liaison Unit can support you in your studies, with:
- reasonable adjustments — changes to the way you are assessed
- course materials in accessible formats
- enabling staff, like note takers or interpreters
- a range of technology.

You are encouraged to register with the Disability Liaison Unit early in the study period or session. You are required to register once per OUA academic year (Study Period 1, 2, 3 or 4 and Session 1, 2 or 3).
For more information on the DLU and registration visit >> www.rmit.edu.au/disability
Open Universities Australia at RMIT website
The Open Universities Australia at RMIT website gives OUA students detailed information about undertaking a single unit or an entire program of study through RMIT University. Find out about units and qualifications, assessment guidelines, administration information and important dates for RMIT OUA students at >> www.rmit.edu.au/oua

myRMIT
myRMIT gives you direct access to your:
- personal details
- RMIT student email account
- important announcements
- news on University events and activities
- online learning resources
- student forums
- classifieds
- frequently asked questions (see the OUA section)
- results
>> www.rmit.edu.au/myrmit

Log in to myRMIT with your username and password.
Username: The letter ‘s’ followed by your student number e.g. s3333333
Initial password: The letter ‘p’ followed by your date of birth (DOB) backwards e.g. p19900408 (DOB 8 April 1990).

Remember to change your password after your first login. Further information is located on the Password assistance web page at
>> www.rmit.edu.au/its/password

You will not be able to use some functions in myRMIT, such as enrolment and editing/updating of personal information. Please contact OUA directly regarding changes to your enrolment or personal details.

IT services
RMIT offers a wide range of information and communication technologies to support your learning experience. For detailed information visit >> www.rmit.edu.au/students/it

Important communications from RMIT
During your studies with RMIT University you will receive a number of important communications. You need to log in to myRMIT at least twice a week to check your announcements and student email account. RMIT will use your student email account to send you official communications related to your enrolment, studies, fees and academic progress. It is your primary means of contact for all correspondence between you and the University.
>> www.rmit.edu.au/myrmit

Online study materials
Your online study materials will be available in the ‘Studies’ tab in myRMIT approximately seven days prior to your start date. If you are unable to access this information you should contact your RMIT school.
>> www.rmit.edu.au/schools

RMIT unit codes and titles
The RMIT unit codes and titles that you see in the ‘Studies’ tab in myRMIT may vary from the unit codes you enrolled in through OUA. If you are unsure whether you are enrolled in the correct unit, please contact RMIT.

RMIT University Library
You can access RMIT University Library’s online resources, including books and journals, using your student number and password. To borrow books you need to contact the Library to obtain a library card.
For more information, visit
>> www.rmit.edu.au/library/borrowing/oua

Exams
Many courses offered through OUA have an invigilated exam component as part of the assessment. The exam period closely follows the study period (undergraduate) or session (postgraduate) term end date.

Information explaining the online timetable and venue selection process for exams will be sent to the email address you provide to OUA. As an OUA student studying through RMIT, it is your responsibility to ensure you read all the information relating to exams.
For more information visit
>> www.open.edu.au/exams

Disability Liaison Unit
If you are living with a disability, long-term medical condition or temporary illness, the Disability Liaison Unit can support you in your studies, with:
- reasonable adjustments — changes to the way you are assessed
- course materials in accessible formats
- enabling staff, like note takers or interpreters
- a range of technology.

You are encouraged to register with the Disability Liaison Unit early in the study period or session. You are required to register once per OUA academic year (Study Period 1, 2, 3 or 4 and Session 1, 2 or 3).

For more information on the DLU and registration visit
>> www.rmit.edu.au/disability

>> www.rmit.edu.au
Open Universities Australia at RMIT website
The Open Universities Australia at RMIT website gives OUA students detailed information about undertaking a single unit or an entire program of study through RMIT University. Find out about units and qualifications, assessment guidelines, administration information and important dates for RMIT OUA students at >> www.rmit.edu.au/oua

myRMIT
myRMIT gives you direct access to your:
• personal details
• RMIT student email account
• important announcements
• news on University events and activities
• online learning resources
• student forums
• classifieds
• frequently asked questions (see the OUA section)
• results
>> www.rmit.edu.au/myrmit

Log in to myRMIT with your username and password.
USERNAME: The letter ‘s’ followed by your student number e.g.s3333333
INITIAL PASSWORD: The letter ‘p’ followed by your date of birth (DOB) backwards e.g. p19900408 (DOB 8 April 1990).

Remember to change your password after your first login. Further information is located on the Password assistance web page at
>> www.rmit.edu.au/its/password

You will not be able to use some functions in myRMIT, such as enrolment and editing/updating of personal information. Please contact OUA directly regarding changes to your enrolment or personal details.

IT services
RMIT offers a wide range of information and communication technologies to support your learning experience. For detailed information visit >> www.rmit.edu.au/students/it

Important communications from RMIT
During your studies with RMIT University you will receive a number of important communications. You need to log in to myRMIT at least twice a week to check your announcements and student email account. RMIT will use your student email account to send you official communications related to your enrolment, studies, fees and academic progress. It is your primary means of contact for all correspondence between you and the University.
>> www.rmit.edu.au/myrmit

Online study materials
Your online study materials will be available in the ‘Studies’ tab in myRMIT approximately seven days prior to your start date. If you are unable to access this information you should contact your RMIT school.
>> www.rmit.edu.au/schools

RMIT unit codes and titles
The RMIT unit codes and titles that you see in the ‘Studies’ tab in myRMIT may vary from the unit codes you enrolled in through OUA. If you are unsure whether you are enrolled in the correct unit, please contact RMIT.

RMIT University Library
You can access RMIT University Library’s online resources, including books and journals, using your student number and password. To borrow books you need to contact the Library to obtain a library card.
For more information, visit >> www.rmit.edu.au/library/borrowing/oua

Exams
Many courses offered through OUA have an invigilated exam component as part of the assessment. The exam period closely follows the study period (undergraduate) or session (postgraduate) term end date.
Information explaining the online timetable and venue selection process for exams will be sent to the email address you provide to OUA. As an OUA student studying through RMIT, it is your responsibility to ensure you read all the information relating to exams.
For more information visit
>> www.open.edu.au/exams

Disability Liaison Unit
If you are living with a disability, long-term medical condition or temporary illness, the Disability Liaison Unit can support you in your studies, with:
• reasonable adjustments — changes to the way you are assessed
• course materials in accessible formats
• enabling staff, like note takers or interpreters
• a range of technology.
You are encouraged to register with the Disability Liaison Unit early in the study period or session. You are required to register once per OUA academic year (Study Period 1, 2, 3 or 4 and Session 1, 2 or 3).
For more information on the DLU and registration visit
>> www.rmit.edu.au/disability

>> www.rmit.edu.au
Special consideration
Special consideration is a variation to an assessment that takes into account the impact of unexpected or extenuating circumstances on your performance in an assessment. Special consideration provides for unexpected illnesses or hardships on a one-off basis. You must apply for special consideration within two days of the assessment or exam due date. Supporting evidence unavailable at the time of lodgement may be provided five days after lodging your application.
For more information visit: www.rmit.edu.au/students/specialconsideration

Special circumstances
Sometimes students are forced to withdraw from their studies after the census date due to circumstances beyond their control. If you wish to apply for fee waiver, a refund, approval of withdrawal without academic penalty or to have your FEE-HELP balance re-credited under special circumstances please visit: www.open.edu.au/public/student-admin-and-support/changing-your-study/special-circumstances

More information
If you have a query about your enrolment or studies at RMIT:
- call the RMIT Student Administration Support Line on tel. +61 3 9925 8980, during business hours
- or, email oua.enrolment@rmit.edu.au

For general IT support please contact the IT Helpdesk on tel. +61 3 9925 8888 or email helpdesk@rmit.edu.au or visit www.rmit.edu.au/its/ithelp

Every effort has been made to ensure the information contained in this publication is accurate and current at the date of printing. For the most up-to-date information please refer to the RMIT University website.

February 2011
Special consideration
Special consideration is a variation to an assessment that takes into account the impact of unexpected or extenuating circumstances on your performance in an assessment. Special consideration provides for unexpected illnesses or hardships on a one-off basis. You must apply for special consideration within two days of the assessment or exam due date. Supporting evidence unavailable at the time of lodgement may be provided five days after lodging your application.
For more information visit >> www.rmit.edu.au/students/specialconsideration

Special circumstances
Sometimes students are forced to withdraw from their studies after the census date due to circumstances beyond their control. If you wish to apply for fee waiver, a refund, approval of withdrawal without academic penalty or to have your FEE-HELP balance re-credited under special circumstances please visit

More information
If you have a query about your enrolment or studies at RMIT:
• call the RMIT Student Administration Support Line on
tel. +61 3 9925 8980, during business hours
• or, email oua.enrolment@rmit.edu.au
For general IT support please contact the IT Helpdesk on tel. +61 3 9925 8888 or e-mail helpdesk@rmit.edu.au or visit >> www.rmit.edu.au/its/ithelp

Every effort has been made to ensure the information contained in this publication is accurate and current at the date of printing. For the most up-to-date information please refer to the RMIT University website.

>> www.rmit.edu.au/oua

February 2011