RMIT Social Work Book launch

We would be delighted if you could join us at RMIT to celebrate the launch of three social work books:

– Cross-Cultural Social Work: Local and Global
  How Kee Ling, Jennifer Martin and Rosaleen Ow

– The Australian Welfare State: Who benefits now?
  Greg Marston, Catherine McDonald with Lois Bryson.

– Social Work Research in Practice: Ethical and Political Contexts Second Edition
  Heather D’Cruz and Martyn Jones

These three books make a significant contribution to social justice issues, equal opportunity and human rights furthering the research agenda in social work locally and globally.

Keynote speaker
Professor Charlotte Williams OBE
Discipline Head, Social Work
RMIT University

Date
Tuesday 8 July 2014

Time
3.30 pm

Venue
RMIT Storey Hall
Level 7
Conference Rooms 1 and 2
342 Swanston Street
Melbourne VIC 3000

RSVP not required.
Light refreshments will be served.

www.rmit.edu.au