C4281: CERTIFICATE IV IN VISUAL ARTS AND CONTEMPORARY CRAFT

Which campus will I study at?
The program is based at our city campus in Cardigan street, Carlton. The purpose built studios cater for all the discipline areas including painting, drawing, digital imaging, sculpture and printmaking.

How long is the program?
The program runs for six months from July through to December. We offer this program as a mid year intake.

What pathways are available?
Students who complete the full Certificate IV in Visual Arts and Contemporary Craft are eligible for credit transfers into four units currently offered in the C5234 Diploma of Visual Art.

What will I study?
The Certificate IV in Visual Arts and Contemporary Craft is a practical, studio-based qualification, which allows you to develop a range of skills including drawing, digital art, sculpture, printmaking and painting. The program is designed to support folio creation and an introduction to the arts industry.

Who is this program for?
The program is designed for students who wish to create a folio, learn about the visual arts industry and develop the skills to become a visual artist practitioner.

What do I receive when I finish my studies?
On completion you will produce a ‘portfolio’ of artwork for use in application/s for further training, or to seek work in the visual arts industry.

How do I apply for the program?
All applicants are required to attend a selection session consisting of an interview and a folio presentation. The folio should contain artwork produced after 2006 that demonstrates the use of a variety of materials and techniques.

Applicants need to apply by direct application to RMIT University to complete an online application. Please visit our website - http://www.rmit.edu.au/programs

For your interview, the following is a portfolio guide:

- Freehand observational drawings (4-6)
- Life Drawings (4 – if possible)
- Notational drawings, quick sketches or drawing journals
- Any paintings, photographs, sculptures or print

Who do I contact for an interview?
Once you have made an online application, the School of Art- TAFE will contact to arrange an interview time.
