Itinerary
The intensive 16 day study tour includes business and cultural visits to:

- regional financial institutions
- Thai Board of Investment
- World Bank
- Grand Palace
- Hua Hin coastal tourist region
- Bangkok cultural and city tour

(Note: site visits may be substituted)

There will also be an opportunity to undertake additional sightseeing. Why not visit the mountains of Mae Hong Son, snorkel and dive around the islands of the Andaman and South China Seas (e.g. Koh Samui, Phuket), visit the ancient cities of Ayutthaya and Sukhothai, the bridge on the River Kwai, the tranquil villages moored along the Mekong River, or enjoy the many natural wonders of nearby provinces such as Chang Mai.

Cost
The cost of the study tour is approximately $3,200 including airfares, taxes, insurance, accommodation and visa fees. These costs and other expenses such as meals and travel insurance are the responsibility of the student. Further information about costs will be available at information sessions.

In addition, students will pay the normal fees associated with studying the equivalent of two RMIT general elective courses and a materials fee may be applied. Please refer to the schedule of RMIT fees and charges published on the website www.rmit.edu.au/fs/materialfees after 10 October 2007.

Eligibility
The Tour is open to all undergraduate and postgraduate students studying an RMIT University program in Melbourne.

How to apply
A completed application form must be returned by Friday 17 August 2007 (first round) or 7 September (second round). Early application is advised. Applicants should read the criteria for selection prior to lodging an application.
