Campuses

Melbourne City Campus

In the heart of Melbourne's CBD you'll experience the best of what the city has to offer, from restaurants and cafés to parks, markets and the State Library of Victoria. The campus is easy to access by public transport and is just across the road from Melbourne Central Station, connecting you to every suburb in Melbourne.

Brunswick Campus

Located on the thriving outskirts of the central business district, Brunswick attracts Melbourne's emerging artists, fashion designers and musicians. This bohemian enclave is dotted with cafés, thrift stores, bars and markets, making for a lively scene both day and night.

The campus is home to many of RMIT's design-related programs, including fashion design and technology, textile design, fashion merchandising, product development and graphic design.

Bundoora Campus

The leafy suburb of Bundoora houses many of RMIT's engineering, health and medical sciences and education programs. The latest facilities are surrounded by greenery and large open spaces, providing a relaxing environment. The campus features a purpose-built healthcare and medical laboratory, as well as advanced sporting facilities that include a FIFA-approved soccer pitch, a football oval, an athletics track, and tennis and netball courts.
