C5328 – Diploma of Interpreting
C6134 – Advanced Diploma of Interpreting
C6133 – Advanced Diploma of Translating

Additional information for prospective students

Applicants for the Diploma of Interpreting, the Advanced Diploma of Translating and the Advanced Diploma of Interpreting must:

• be at least 18 years of age on 1 January of the year of application
• have satisfactorily completed Year 12 or equivalent
• successfully complete a bilingual selection test as determined by the School; the test may include a written essay and translation tasks, and oral and listening bilingual tasks
• applicants are screened for potential to achieve at least one of the NAATI paraprofessional/professional accreditations offered by the programs

Local applicants will be notified in writing by the School of the specific arrangements including times and venues for selection tests.

International/Non-Australian resident applicants:

• Are only eligible to apply for the full-time Diploma, Advanced Diploma, Graduate Diploma and Master programs.

Contact RMIT International on +61 3 9925 5156 to obtain information on entry requirements and application procedures.

Professional recognition

C5328 Diploma of Interpreting
This is a national qualification within the Public Sector Training Package. Students who successfully complete all the units with a minimum grade of Competent are eligible to receive the Diploma of Interpreting and students who also achieve a minimum of Competent with Distinction or above in the interpreting unit are eligible to be recommended to NAATI for the paraprofessional interpreter accreditation.

C6134 Advanced Diploma of Interpreting
This is a national qualification within the Public Sector Training Package. Students who successfully complete all the units with a minimum grade of Competent are eligible to receive the Advanced Diploma of Interpreting and students who also achieve a minimum of Competent with Distinction or above in the selected interpreting units are eligible to be recommended to NAATI for the professional interpreter accreditation.

C6133 Advanced Diploma of Translating
This is a national qualification within the Public Sector Training Package. Students who successfully complete all the units with a minimum grade of Competent are eligible to receive the Advanced Diploma of Translating and students who also achieve a minimum grade of Competent with Distinction or above in the translating unit are eligible to be recommended to NAATI for the professional translator accreditation in the language direction they studied.

Please note: Information supplied in this document was correct at the time of publication, July 2014. Every effort has been made to ensure that information is accurate. Prospective students are advised to confirm details with the appropriate school or area prior to application.