Network Night
Making it fair

What can Office of the Victorian Small Business Commissioner do for you?
How can Australian Competition & Consumer Commission (ACCC) help you?

Jane Kelly, Manager, Office of Victorian Small Business Commissioner, and Gina D’Ettoire, Manager, Australian Competition & Consumer Commission will present policies and initiatives which promote a competitive and fair business environment.

Small business owners will gain an awareness of the assistance available to them in resolving business disputes, including the availability low cost mediation.

Jane and Gina will also explain the ACCC role in the regularity framework relevant to Australian business operations.

Speakers:

Jane Kelly has a long history associated with small business. She holds the position of Manager Co-ordination and External Relations reporting directly to the Small Business Commissioner.

Gina D’Ettoire worked in the private sector for 15 years with 5 years experience as an owner/operator of a small business and is the Small Business Manager in the ACCC’s Victorian office.

Networking: Make the most of this opportunity and bring your products, your portfolio and your business cards for the Business Card Door Prize! If you have a product for sale we are able to set up a display table. This is an ideal opportunity to meet with your peers, to network, to listen to a guest speaker and have a good time.

Light refreshments will be served.

RSVP to Leah or Julia on (03) 9925 2933 or Email: helen.dougiakis@rmit.edu.au by Friday 7 October 2005

The New Enterprise Incentive Scheme (NEIS) is funded by the Department of Employment and Workplace Relations (DEWR)