By studying Business Globalisation—A Study Abroad in Canada over a two week period at Ryerson University, Toronto, Canada, you can receive credit for two elective courses in your RMIT degree.

Undertaking this study tour gives you the opportunity to:

- gain practical knowledge and an understanding of the total management process associated with the globalisation of business and international trade
- be introduced to a range of issues related to the topic of business globalisation within a Canadian context
- focus on Canada in issues pertaining to technology, culture, politics, economics, ethics, human resource management and the environment
- receive credit for two elective courses towards your RMIT University degree.

Objective

The Canadian Study Tour provides a unique opportunity to critically appreciate and evaluate relationships between global and Canadian businesses.

You will learn how to use reflective practice techniques as part of ethical global management and to develop relevant strategy for globally networked organisations.

You will also learn how to work effectively as part of a multi-disciplinary, collaborative team and make culturally sensitive business decisions within a diverse global environment.

Academic content

This internationally focused study tour (ISYS 2380/ISYS 2381) gives you the opportunity to experience the practical challenges of working in global companies.

Before departure intensive learning workshops will be held exploring the cross-cultural, social and political issues associated with engaging in business across the globe. Upon return, there are further opportunities to share knowledge and reflect on experiences gained during the study tour component.

Assessment tasks are different for undergraduate and postgraduate students and may include a group presentation, reflective learning journal, individual assignment and analytical paper.

Closing date
Completed applications must be received by Monday 1 April 2013.

Early application is advised.

AN OPPORTUNITY TOO GOOD TO MISS
‘The study tour will open your eyes to another part of the world in more ways than you can imagine. You will gain an appreciation of Canadian businesses and form opinions that will trigger your own development upon return. The tour is actioned-packed with a balance of theory and the opportunity to meet new people, attend industry specific lectures, and see the sights. There is no better elective choice for students. The trip was everything I expected plus more.’
