

Assessment Page

A series of tabs and accordions guide the Assessment phase of the Application process

The screenshot shows the RMIT iApply Assessment Page for Faisal Awad Alharbi (130000074544). The page is titled "Assessment for Faisal Awad Alharbi (130000074544)" and shows the decision authority as "School" and "Sponsor nominated". The assessment is for "MC163 - Master Of Architecture" in Semester 1, 2017, with a status of "Waiting for Assessment". Another assessment is shown for "BP250 - Bachelor Of Architectural Design" in Semester 1, 2015, with a status of "Decision (denied)". The page includes a navigation menu on the left with "Assess" highlighted, and a main content area with tabs for "View", "Comments", "Application", "Assessment", "Decision", "Actions", and "Documents". The "Decision" tab is active, showing an accordion with sections for "+ Outcome", "+ Credits", "+ Conditions", "+ Program glossary", and "+ Fees & OSHC". A "Deny" button is visible in the bottom right corner of the assessment details. Callouts provide additional context: "Information about the Applicant and the Program being applied for" points to the applicant name and ID; "Assessment overview to guide case manager or selection officer making a decision for application." points to the assessment table; "Essential information about an Applicant and program to consider in doing an Assessment" points to the left navigation menu; "Accordions for accessing information within each section" points to the accordion sections; and "Tabs for accessing parts of the Assessment (explained in next page)" points to the tabs at the bottom of the assessment details.
