24th July, 2012

Ms Anita Kuan
Deputy Director (Academic Services)
Ngee Ann Polytechnic
School of Film and Media Studies
Blk 531,#07-01,535 Clementi Road
59 9489 SINGAPORE

Dear Ms Kuan

Recognition of Advanced Standing – Ngee Ann Polytechnic

On behalf of the RMIT University, I am pleased to enclose Addendum 2012, which supersedes the Agreement dated 22nd February, 2011. This new agreement formally documents a revised selection criteria as well as the level of advanced standing that graduates from the Diploma in Mass Communication and Diploma in Film, Sound and Video will receive when entering our Bachelor of Communication (Media) program.

Applicants are expected to follow the normal application process into the RMIT program and will receive confirmation of advanced standing in their Letter of Offer. Admission is subject to visa requirements and availability of places in the program.

We look forward to receiving your graduates.

Professor Kerry London
Acting Deputy PVC, Learning and Teaching
College of Design and Social Context
RMIT University
171 La Trobe Street Melbourne 3000
City Campus
Australia

CRICOS provider number: 00122A

Enclosures: Attachments 1 & 2 for Advanced Standing Entry for BP221 (B Comm) Media
ATTACHMENT NUMBER 1

Ngee Ann Polytechnic

BP221

1. ORGANISATION PROGRAM
   Diploma in Mass Communication

2. RMIT PROGRAM
   Program Name: Bachelor of Communication (Media)
   Program Code: BP221
   Program Plan: BP221
   CRICOS Code: 048667E

3. RMIT SCHOOL
   Media and Communication
   School Contact: Dr Marianne Sison / Dr David Carlin

4. ADVANCED STANDING STANDARD
   English Language ability of one of the following / or equivalent:

   - IELTS - 6.5+(no band less than 6.0) is required
   - TOEFL - Paper based = 580+ (TWE 4.5+)
   - TOEFL - Computer based = 237+ (TWE 4.5+)
   - RMIT English Worldwide -- Advanced Level 2

   as determined by the specific RMIT program/s and VISA requirements. Students who have not attained this level will be required to complete supplementary English language training.

   Applicants are required to submit academic transcripts as part of their application.

   Advanced Standing in relation to specific course exemptions is dependant on many factors such as:
   - Commencing semester of the student and the availability of courses
   - Overall grades
   - Work experience and references
Students who have successfully completed the Diploma in Mass Communication program at Ngee Ann Polytechnic and have been selected to the Bachelor of Communication (Media) will receive the following advance standing:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Commencement</th>
<th>Advanced Standing offered</th>
<th>To complete Bachelor of Communication (Media)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Both February and July intake</td>
<td>3 semesters, 1.5 yrs</td>
<td>3 semesters, 1.5 yrs</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

5. COORDINATION SERVICES

Each institution will notify the other in writing if there is any change in the curriculum or program structure.

6. LOCATION

The program will be undertaken at the RMIT City Campus.

7. COMMENCEMENT DATE

The agreement shall commence on the date it is approved.

8. APPLICATION PROCESS

Applicants are required to apply to RMIT University via normal application process for international students.

9. MARKETING

Each institution is able to publicise this relationship in their marketing material.
ATTACHMENT NUMBER 2

Ngee Ann Polytechnic

BP221

1. ORGANISATION PROGRAM
Diploma in Film, Sound and Video

2. RMIT PROGRAM
Program Name: Bachelor of Communication (Media)
Program Code: BP221
Program Plan: BP221
CRICOS Code: 048667E

3. RMIT SCHOOL
Media and Communication

School Contact: Dr Marianne Sison / Dr David Carlin

4. ADVANCED STANDING STANDARD
English Language ability of one of the following / or equivalent:

- IELTS – 6.5+(no band less than 6.0) is required
- TOEFL – Paper based = 580+ (TWE 4.5+)
- TOEFL – Computer based = 237+ (TWE 4.5+)
- RMIT English Worldwide – Advanced Level 2

as determined by the specific RMIT program/s and VISA requirements. Students who have not attained this level will be required to complete supplementary English language training.

Applicants are required to submit academic transcripts as part of their application.

Advanced Standing in relation to specific course exemptions is dependant on many factors such as:

- Commencing semester of the student and the availability of courses
- Overall grades
- Work experience and references

RMIT University
Students who have successfully completed the Diploma in Film, Sound and Video program at Ngee Ann Polytechnic and have been selected to the Bachelor of Communication (Media) will receive the following advance standing:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Commencement</th>
<th>Advanced Standing offered</th>
<th>To complete Bachelor of Communication (Media)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Both February and July intake</td>
<td>3 semesters 1.5 yrs</td>
<td>3 semesters 1.5 yrs 144 credit points</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

5. COORDINATION SERVICES

Each institution will notify the other in writing if there is any change in the curriculum or program structure.

6. LOCATION

The program will be undertaken at the RMIT City Campus.

7. COMMENCEMENT DATE

The agreement shall commence on the date it is approved.

8. APPLICATION PROCESS

Applicants are required to apply to RMIT University via normal application process for international students.

9. MARKETING

Each institution is able to publicise this relationship in their marketing material.