1. Student Attendance

Attendance at all classes at Grenoble Ecole de Management is compulsory for the duration of the Study Intensive.

2. Assumption of risk

The undersigned further states and affirms that he or she is aware that study intensive, even under the safest conditions possible, may be hazardous; and that he or she assumes the risk of any and all loss of or damage to property and/or bodily injury or death, howsoever caused, including negligence, resulting from, arising out of or in any way connected with the study intensive; and that he or she has read and understands all the provisions contained in this form.

3. Travel Insurance

All students participating in this elective are required to have comprehensive travel insurance providing appropriate coverage for loss and damage to personal property, flight cancellation costs, medical and like expenses and other normal incidences of travel insurance. All students are responsible for the payment of the insurance premium.

4. Student Code of Conduct

RMIT reserves the right to invoke penalties for inappropriate behaviour whilst on the course, which may include, but it is not limited to, the withholding of results, immediate removal from the course or other action as is deemed necessary.

Any cases of alleged misconduct will be handled in accordance with Regulation 6.1.1 – Student Discipline.

5. Medical attention

I acknowledge that the course leaders may find it necessary, at some stage of the program to seek medical advice or attention on my behalf. I authorise them to make any decisions necessary in this instance and agree to meet the costs incurred and will not hold them liable or responsible in any way.

6. Withdrawal from the course

The undersigned hereby agrees that penalties may be incurred due to the withdrawal from the course after Wednesday 9 November 2011 and/or non-attendance without notice (Section 4 – Application Form).

I consent to the conditions of undertaking the France Study Intensive 2012 as explained in this document and the Study Intensive Application Form.
