Abstract of proposed paper to be presented at the conference

Title: ..........................................................

Author(s) and Affiliation(s): .................................................

Postal address: ............................................. State: ....... Postcode: ..............................

Business phone: .................................................. Business fax: ........................................

Email: .................................................................

Abstract (300 words max): ..........................................................

Are you an early career researcher? (PhD or equivalent since or inc. 2003):  □ Yes  □ No

Conference Theme: (Please tick relevant theme(s))

□ Analysis and evaluation of housing assistance programs
□ Cross-national and comparative housing research
□ Emerging issues in housing research and policy
□ Housing affordability and affordable housing
□ Housing and urban land supply
□ Housing and homelessness
□ Housing research and theory
□ Housing and other knowledge domains (health, labour markets, economic development, planning, urban geography)
□ Housing and urban management and development

□ Housing design and adaptability
□ Housing system and housing markets
□ Housing needs and policies for specific population groups (including Indigenous, aged, youth, migrant, repossessed)
□ Housing, sustainability and the environment
□ Indigenous housing
□ Methodological issues in housing research
□ Other (please specify):

NB: Abstracts due 31st March 2008, email to rilke.muir@rmit.edu.au

Further information: www.rmit.edu.au/dsc/research/AHRC08