

Graduate Future Careers

A RMIT-wide Project 2015-2017

KEY ENABLERS

Effective stakeholder engagement and communications	Business intelligence data to support planning and decision making	Global application	External marketing campaign	Targeted programs of skills development sharing best practise, patterns and tools.	Create and curate central staff hub to house employability tools.
Link into Inclusive teaching principles to ensure equity and social inclusion	Effective governance and operations	Accessibility to resources ITS/Facilities/HR	Share, celebrate and accelerate best practise	Achieving clarity of roles and responsibilities with regard to Graduate employability	Provide market differentiator 'fit for purpose' products aligned to professional recognition. Review program architecture and design for student lifecycle.