Important information

Use this form to apply to RMIT as a cross institutional inbound student.

For more information about cross institutional enrolment go to www.rmit.edu.au/students/enrolment/crossenrol/inbound.

To enrol as an inbound cross institutional student at RMIT you must:

1. have the authorisation of your home university – see page 2
2. sign and complete the student declaration on page 2
3. submit this form to the RMIT school that teaches the course (subject) in which you wish to enrol

Note: If you are seeking approval to enrol in more than one course in the same semester and those courses are offered by different RMIT schools, you will need to obtain the approval of each school. School contact details can be accessed from the Academic schools webpage at www.rmit.edu.au/schools. Applications for courses offered by the College of Business should be submitted to Business Central, for more information go to www.rmit.edu.au/bus/businesscentral.

It is your responsibility to ensure you meet the prerequisites for the course/s that you are applying to study at RMIT. Schools may request your official academic transcript as proof of the completion of equivalent prerequisites at your home institution.

On approval of your application you will receive information about how to enrol online. It is your responsibility to enrol online prior to the deadlines for the relevant semester.
