Commonwealth Supported Places
Juris Doctor and Master of Professional Accounting

2010 ENTRY

The School of Accounting and Law is pleased to announce that a limited number of Commonwealth Supported Places (CSP) for the Juris Doctor (JD) and Master of Professional Accounting (MPA) have been made available for applicants interested in commencing in 2010.

What is a CSP place?
Commonwealth supported students receive a student contribution that partially covers the tuition costs of their enrolment. The student contribution for a program is the sum of the contributions for each of the courses enrolled in for that year.

The following link gives information on calculating the cost of a CSP place:
www.rmit.edu.au/programs/fees/highered#css

On what basis are CSP places offered?
CSP places will be offered to candidates on the basis of academic merit, ie: outstanding bachelor degree academic results as determined by the program coordinator and selection officer. Applications for these CSP places will be reviewed after the timely closing date for postgraduate applications on 10 November, 2009 and offers made after that date.

Late applications may continue to be accepted after that date, however there may not be any CSP places available.

How do I apply?
Information on RMIT’s application procedures is available at the following link:
www.rmit.edu.au/programs/applications/postgrad#cw

If you would like to apply for one of the available CSP places, tick the Commonwealth Supported Place (CSP) box on the Direct Application Form (in Section C of the form).

If you would also like to apply for the standard full-fee paying place, you should also tick that box. Your application will be assessed, and offers made, based on the fee type/s you have applied for so make sure you tick both boxes if you are interested in either a full-fee place and would also like to be considered for a CSP place.
