

RMIT GLOBAL MOBILITY presents

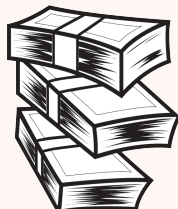

Young Australian Ambassadors Delegation (YAAD) 2017

Check out some interesting facts about China

If you could dig a deep enough hole in China...

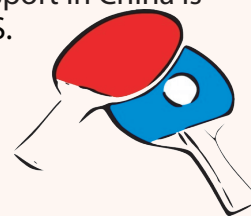

You'd end up in ARGENTINA or CHILE.

The world's FIRST paper money was created in China 1,400 YEARS ago.

The national sport in China is TABLE TENNIS.

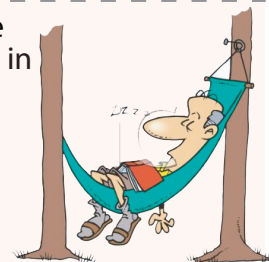

All GIANT PANDAS in the world belong to China.

1 IN EVERY 3 SOCKS you have are made in ZhuJi, China AKA "Sock City".

It is acceptable to TAKE A NAP in IKEA.

Generous funding available!

Melbourne Based Students:

New Colombo Plan: 30 x $7,000 scholarships available for the YAAD semester.*
additional $1,000 scholarship for self-sourced internships.

RMIT Global Mobility Grants: 10 x $3,000 scholarships for the YAAD semester ***

Choose from one of 8 universities in China for in Sem 2, 2017

Nanjing University
- Elective & Language courses only

Shanghai University of International Business & Economics
- Business courses only

Nanjing University of Aeronautics & Astronautics
- Aerospace Engineering (mapped curriculum)
- Mechanical and Electrical Engineering #

Foshan University
- Industrial Design courses only

Tianjin Normal University
- Language courses only

Southeast University
- Mechanical, Civil and Electrical Engineering courses only #

Tianjin University
- Architecture courses only #

University of Science and Technology China
- Courses to be confirmed #

Come along to a YAAD info session and you could find yourself in China.

March 17, 2017

12:30 - 1:30 PM

Building 80, Level 3, Room 6

March 30, 2017

3:00 - 4:00 PM

Building 80, Level 3, Room 6

* Must be Australian citizen

 Internship must start immediately after YAAD semester

 For students not eligible for New Colombo Plan funding

Course mapping to be confirmed

For more information, contact Anielle Leung at anielle.leung@rmit.edu.au