TEMPORARY ACCOMMODATION

Locating a suitable place to live permanently can be a difficult task so you may need temporary accommodation while you're searching. Student apartment complexes, hostels, motels, hotels and backpacker accommodation offer temporary options. Hotels and student apartment complexes generally offer the best facilities as they are usually clean, secure, warm and quieter than hostels and backpackers. However, hostels and backpackers are often the most inexpensive option.

RMIT VILLAGE

RMIT Village is located in North Melbourne. It takes approximately ten minutes to walk from the village to RMIT City campus. If you don’t feel like walking, there is a tram stop just across the road from the village. Staying at RMIT Village will not only save time but also transport costs.

Short-term accommodation is only available for fixed terms between December and February.

All summer-stay apartments have balconies and flat-screen TVs in each bedroom. The village features a swimming pool, gym, business centre, pay TV lounge, outside and inside communal lounge areas, a coin operated laundry, bike storage and free parking.
