ASSOCIATE DEGREE
FASHION AND TEXTILE MERCHANDISING

Be ready to work with some of the biggest names in fashion

RMIT University is one of Australia’s leading fashion and textile education providers, with programs designed specifically to meet the personal, professional and vocational needs of the student and the worldwide fashion and textiles industry.

The Associate Degree in Fashion and Textile Merchandising has a global focus and aims to provide employment opportunities across a range of careers in this exciting industry.

Students have the opportunity to work on industry-based projects with some of the biggest names in fashion including Calvin Klein, Colorado, Country Road, French Connection, Kookai, Puma, and Target to name a few.

Why choose RMIT for fashion and textile merchandising?

RMIT offers:

- A professional qualification or a pathway to a bachelor or master degree
- Work integrated learning, exchange programs, work experience and internships with some of the biggest names in fashion
- Connections to a local and international network of fashion and textiles designers, suppliers, manufacturers and educational institutions
- Study tours to the world fashion capitals including, Paris, Milan, Rome, Barcelona and London.

The qualification leads you to:

- Being work ready
  Successful graduates may choose to work in a diverse range of areas within the fashion, textile, and clothing industries. Employment prospects include product developers, assistant buyers, sales representatives, range coordinators, store managers, service assistants, visual merchandisers, marketing, design assistants, quality assurance officers, and production assistants.

- Further study
  Upon successful completion of the Associate Degree in Fashion and Textile Merchandising, graduates can directly enter into the one year Bachelor of Applied Science (Fashion and Textiles Merchandising).

.Errorf.RMIT provided me with the opportunity to study at the Fashion Institute of Technology (FIT) in Manhattan, New York and opened the door to an internship with top designer, Loris Diran, and with the iconic fashion magazine, Vogue.'

Samantha Slorach
Diploma Textiles Clothing and Footwear (Product Development and Merchandising)

New international student enquiries:
isu@rmit.edu.au

www.rmit.edu.au/international